And two others.

... Respondents

ORDER:

On a complaint given by respondents 2 and 3, the petitioner was called to the police station and enquired by the first respondent. The allegation in the complaint was that the petitioner taken away his son from the custody of the second respondent. Therefore, the present writ petition is filed.

In the counter affidavit, it is disclosed that after making enquiries and coming to know that the petitioner is the father and natural guardian of the minor boy, the further action is dropped against the petitioner. In that view of the matter, nothing survives in the writ petition.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed as infructuous.
